Audience Response System (ARS)

Virtual Session Hosts will utilize the written discussion portion of the virtual conference platform's audience response system (ARS).

To participate in the written discussion, you will need to login as a conference participant through the website or conference app. For more information on website access, check out this info.