

What to expect... Re-opening St. Veronica Chapel & Msgr. Halloran Hall

Reservations: All parishioners must make a reservation through the "Signup Genius" link as found at www.stthomasmoreri.org

Masks: Everyone must wear a mask for the entire Mass up until the moment they receive communion then immediately put it back on. Disposable masks will be available if needed

Hand Sanitizer: Parishioners are encouraged to bring hand sanitizer to Mass. Dispensing stations will be available if forgotten.

Collections: Budget envelopes can be placed in one of the Lucite collection boxes located in the doorways in and out of the chapel and hall.

Arrival at St. Veronica Chapel:

- Please arrive 30 minutes prior to your scheduled Mass time
- Pull into parking lot and proceed down to the center doors
- A parking attendant will confirm your reservation and instruct you/your household where you will be sitting (Chapel or Msgr. Halloran Hall)
- Note, if one does not have a reservation, they will not be permitted in the church and will be instructed to sign up on-line for the following week
- Parishioners assigned to the Chapel will enter through the center doors and a greeter inside will show you to your seat(s)
- Parishioners assigned to Msgr. Halloran Hall will enter through the single hall door and a greeter inside will show you to your seat(s)
- Note, these are the only 2 doors that will be open. Access from Msgr. Halloran Hall to the church is not permitted.
- The Holy Eucharist must be received in the hand without gloves through a plexiglass window that Father Taillon will be standing behind.
- Everyone is required to stay in their assigned seat(s) the entire Mass with the exception of receiving the Eucharist or needing to use the restroom (please, only one person at a time)
- Singing is discouraged. Please open your hearts to listen to the word of God and the hymns played by our musicians
