

Group Confidentiality Agreement

As a participant in group activities at CAPA, I agree to maintain confidentiality.
This means:

- ~What is said in group stays in group
- ~Please do not talk about who else attends the group
- ~Creating posts or status updates on social media sites or other public sites on the internet with confidential information from the group is prohibited
- ~If I choose to share or receive personal contact information with other members to maintain a relationship outside of group, I will keep that I information private and confidential

It is OK to share educational materials or information the group leader speaks about during sessions.
