

FAQs on Reopening Restoration: Phase Beta

When will the service be and who can attend?

- All services begin at 10:00 and will run in conjunction with our YouTube Live service. All ages may attend, however we will not have nursery or Kids Small Groups on the premises.

Where do I park?

- Please park in the W&L lot on Quincy St and 15th. Street and walk to the church up Quincy St.

Who may attend?

- The service is open to all ages. You are free to attend any service, provided in the prior 14 days: you have not had a fever or other symptoms of COVID-19; and you have not had exposure to a person with COVID-19. If you have traveled internationally or out of state in the previous 14 days, we ask you to thoughtfully consider not attending in person in our sanctuary.

Will there be a shuttle?

- There will not be a shuttle. We ask that all attendees and volunteers park in the lot on Quincy and 15th St.

Who may park in Restoration's Parking Lot?

- The Restoration parking lot is reserved for high risk/handicap attendees only.

Where do I enter the church?

- We will maintain separate entries for attendees.
 - Those in high risk categories will enter through the side door and use either the interior stairs or the elevator.
 - All other attendees will use the exterior stairs and enter through the Upper Narthex doors
- The Lower Narthex doors will remain locked.

Will there be Eucharist?

- We will celebrate the Eucharist outside, each week during Phase Beta.
- You do not need to attend the service in the sanctuary or sign up to participate in the Eucharist.

- We will not be celebrating the Eucharist during the in church service.

Will there be singing?

- Since we are decreasing the age on face coverings (not age 2 and older) and we have increased social distancing in the sanctuary (10' front, back, diagonal and side to side) the congregation will be permitted to sing quietly during worship.
- The worship team will continue to sing behind their plexiglass barriers.
- The worship team will lead fewer songs (3 or 4 as opposed to 5 or 6).

Do I need to wear a mask?

- Everyone over 2 years old will be expected to wear a face covering when inside our building.

What should I expect when I arrive?

- There will be plenty of signage as you approach.
- We will not be distributing worship guides; we will not be collecting an offering on-site; and we will not be celebrating the Eucharist.
- Ushers will be available when you arrive to direct you to seating.
- The interior doors will remain propped open before, during, and after the service.
- The pews will be marked every 10ft for social distancing. Every other pew is available for seating.
- Seating will start at the front of the sanctuary and proceed backwards in order to minimize people walking past each other. Ushers will help direct you.
- Both sides of the pews will be used for entry and exit.
- Based on the seating configuration, some seating will be in the center of the pew. Please observe the markings on the pews.
- We ask everyone to remain in their seats at the end of the service until dismissed. Ushers will invite you to exit by row, starting from the back and moving forward towards the chancel.
- Please exit the building promptly.
- You are welcome to socialize outside the building after the service while remaining 6ft apart for social distancing.
- Watch this video.

When should I arrive?

- All services begin promptly at 10:00am and will run in conjunction with YouTube Live.
- Please leave enough time to park, walk, and get settled before the service starts.
- You want to plan to arrive at the Restoration building by 9:50am and be in your seat by 9:55am sharp.

Will restrooms be available?

- While we encourage you to prepare for the one hour service, all restrooms will be available.
- We ask that only one family enter at a time.
- Hand washing is strongly encourage and single use barriers (paper towels) will be available for entering and exiting the bathroom.

What if I am not ready to attend in person services?

- If you do not feel comfortable attending in person, we will continue to provide the YouTube Live streaming option.
- In addition, please stay connected to our clergy, staff and volunteers through email, phone, and text.

How do I sign up?

- Use the Sign Up Genius to reserve your spot.
- All 11 weeks are included in the Sign Up Genius
- Please include every member of your group when you sign up (yes, babies count as one).
- There will be 75 slots available for attendees during Phase Beta

Is there a deadline to sign up?

- Yes, we ask that you sign up by 4:00pm the Friday prior to the service you would like to attend.
- Signing up early helps us plan seating capacity and follow all requirements and best practices that have been provided by the Governor of Virginia.
- If you must cancel, please do so by Friday before 4:00pm so someone else may use your seat.

Are my children permitted to use the playground?

- In July, Arlington County opened the playgrounds in county parks. The Restoration playground is also open for kids to use. Please wash your hands often.
