The holidays can be extremely difficult for those experiencing the loss of a loved one. Memories of family get-togethers, traditions, carols and gift-giving can be too much when we know that life is different.

Our hope is that the spirit of Thanksgiving—which is gratitude—and the spirit of Christmas—which is peace—may comfort your heart as your loved one “sleeps in heavenly peace.”

Fr. Gerry will gently guide our hearts closer to the Lord during this powerful season of love and hope.
