Release and Indemnification of Church

We (I) agree to release and discharge the Church, the Episcopal Diocese of Upper South Carolina (the “Diocese), and the clergy, officers, directors, agents, employees, and volunteers of the Church and the Diocese (the “Released Parties”) from liability for any potential claims, actions, or causes of action whatsoever brought for or on behalf of myself or my child for property damages or personal injuries of any nature whatsoever, including those caused by a Released Party’s negligence, arising out of or related to our (my) child’s participation in the Activity, including any claims for injury, damage, or harm related to COVID-19 or other pandemic diseases (the “Released Claims”). We (I) agree to defend, indemnify, and hold harmless the Released Parties with respect to any claim made against them arising in any way from the Released Claims. The release and indemnification provisions of this agreement expressly pertain to negligent conduct and are without reservation of any kind except only for claims and injuries to the extent that they arise solely and exclusively out of grossly negligent, intentional, willful, or wanton wrongdoing of the particular Released Party in question.
