

Come join Volunteers for Outdoor California in building new trail on John Muir Land Trust's iconic Painted Rock property. The trail will connect with 15,500-acres of permanently protected habitat and provide endless opportunities for public recreation. Enjoy panoramic views of Mt. Diablo, Las Trampas and the Oakland/Berkely hills.

Make a lasting contribution by building a new trail.

Volunteer on the trail, for kitchen duty or in base camp.

Meet people with similar interests.

Tools, gloves, instructions, and delicious food provided.†

Earn community service hours.

No previous trail building experience necessary.

Join us for one day or the entire weekend.

Enjoy camping out Friday and Saturday nights.*

† Meals provided on Saturday and Sunday

* Camping not required
