

The word of God affects every hearer differently. Some are joyful, some cry, some pray, some listen... perhaps for the first time ever.