

Our Savior's Lutheran Church Reader Responsibilities

Our Savior's Readers go to the podium at the appointed time during worship to share the word of God with us.

Reader Duties

1. Generally, there is a First Lesson and a Psalm to be read by the Reader.
2. The church office will email to the Reader a copy of the reading(s), in larger print, for that Sunday. The reading is also printed in Sunday's bulletin and can be read from there instead.
3. At the time of the service when the reading(s) are scheduled (see worship bulletin), go to the podium in either the sanctuary or CLC.
4. State where the passage is from (i.e. "From the first chapter of John.").
5. Read the passage.
6. The Psalm is usually read "responsively". This means that the Reader reads the first verse and the worshippers read the following verse that's printed in BOLD in their bulletins. The Reader alternates with the worshippers until the end of the passage.

If you have any questions about reading, please ask the Pastor before worship and he/she will be happy to assist you
