

Volunteers of America Colorado

TRAVEL AUTHORIZATION LETTER

Law Enforcement Official: Volunteers of America Colorado is aware that local authorities have ordered all non-essential business to close and for members of the community to stay at home. Volunteers of America Colorado is exempt from closure and travel restrictions because Volunteers of America Colorado has been designated as an Essential Business that is providing Essential Services to the community.

The bearer of this letter, as a volunteer of essential services at VOA Colorado, is providing essential services and thus, is also exempt from any travel restrictions. However, volunteers will abide by all laws and social distancing guidance as provided by the community. Exempt operations include:

- All Volunteers of America Colorado operations
- All Volunteers of America Colorado volunteers transiting to and from their workplace.

The safety of our people, our clients, and the communities we serve are our top priorities. Volunteers of America Colorado continues to closely monitor the latest COVID-19 updates and is taking all appropriate precautions and actions.

If further validation of this person's status as a Volunteers of America Colorado volunteer is required, it can be done by contacting Volunteer Services of the agency at:
