The Tanah Keeta Scout Reservation is set on a 640-acre tract of land in the pristine South Florida wilderness. Our camp sits on a bend of the historic Loxahatchee River, teeming with diverse wildlife, scrub forests and pristine spring-fed lakes.

The land that currently is occupied by Tanah Keeta was previously home to a WWII Radar Testing Base. Tanah Keeta first opened for business 1957, building a long history of excellence and adventure!
