Your gift of time is very precious and greatly appreciated. Amber Waves has not been able to grow and succeed without the great team of volunteers giving their time, energy, and support. I hear so many compliments to how friendly and helpful Starkey volunteers are, and it makes participants come back, and helps these events grow, Thank you! When these events grow and become more successful, Starkey, and the people Starkey serves benefit directly. You matter and are making a difference. Let's keep that passion going, and keep growing and doing great things!
