

YOU'RE NEVER ALONE[5]

(1/20/14)

FRANCESCA: Bud's what everybody's called him since he was a boy.ROBERT: So (MUSIC GO) "Bud" told you when you met—FRANCESCA: He said, there are a lot of things you won't find in Iowa.

But care is not one of them. The people care about each other here. Like last year at the end of the harvest, Bob Hansen got hurt and had to go to the hospital, so early the next morning, Bud...

Music & Lyrics by JASON ROBERT BROWN

Intensely (♩ = 95)[5]

mp (Gtrs) mf

8vb—

(BUD enters with neighbors)

sim.

8vb—

[9]BUD:

Went down to the Han - sen place to check on Bob— and the kid.—

8vb—

11 One look at that fel-la's face, I guess I knew what he did.—

12

(8vb)-----

13 Too proud to ad-mit he's stuck when all his crops went down.—

14

(8vb)-----

15 Lord knows we'd - 've backed him up to get a loan in town.—

16

Am

(8vb)-----

[17]

18 Damn fool, when the bills came through, He could-n't think of an - y-thing else to do—

G (Gtrs - comp)

Dm

(8vb)-----

[illegible]

22

thresh-er on— and then lays right down,

23

So the hos - pi - tal took off half his arm.

Dm

G

(8vb)

24

[25]

I know it ain't eas - y, This is a

E7sus

A2

(Gtrs - power-chords)

loco

long road. Nothin' is easy out there on your own, 28

But if you're read - y to stand up, I tell ya, by 29

G2/A

A

30

God's grace, — We're all — from the same — place, — Right down to the 31

G2/A

F/A

[33]

32

bone: You're nev - er a - lone. —

G2/A

mp Am Em7

8vb—

FRANCESCA: Everybody pitched in. People show up when you need them.

34

35

36

sim.

(8vb)—