Anything else we should know about your family:
My family and I just moved out of a domestic violence shelter after staying for six months so things have been really hard for us lately with making ends meet buying diapers making sure my kids have everything that they need. Getting used to it just being us, my kids and I. It's been really tough. I just try to remain optimistic and hope for the best in the future we're grateful for anything, we're just a family trying to make it. Thank you so much for this opportunity. You have no idea how much this means to me or my family. I've never had the opportunity to give them the Christmas they deserve, because of my circumstance I've just had means to make sure we make it to the next day thank you again God bless!
