

LITANY FOR CHICAGO AND THE SUBURBS

We repeat: "Lord, forgive us and our city"

For the profanation of the Eucharist
For receiving your Body and Blood unworthily
For avoiding confessions
For limiting our religious practices to special occasions, such as a wedding or a funeral
For life as if You did not exist
For our cloudy, uncertain, and doubtful faith
For being completely absorbed in ourselves
For isolating ourselves from others
For an abortion
For those lonely in nursing homes
For the sick who have no insurance
For the unemployed who lost their jobs and hope in finding a job
For the drug dealers on our street corners
For virtually lost
For morally lost
For the homeless stripped of their dignity
For relationships full of hurt in our families
For addicted parents
For sexually abused children
For children who wander aimlessly in the streets of Chicago
For those who were not paid for their work
For indifference
